Determination of remuneration to the board of directors and the auditors (item 9)

The nomination committee proposes that board remuneration shall be paid with SEK 250,000 (unchanged compared to the previous year) to the chairman of the board of directors and SEK 125,000 (unchanged compared to the previous year) to each non-employed board member (i.e. a total of SEK 750,000 if board election is made in accordance with the nomination committee's proposal).

Remuneration to members of the audit committee are proposed to be paid with SEK 50,000 to the chairman and SEK 25,000 to each member (unchanged compared to the previous year).

Remuneration to the auditor are proposed to be paid in accordance with approved invoice.

Determination of number of board members and election of members of the board of directors and auditor (item 10,11)

The nomination committee proposes that the number of board members shall be five (5) members without deputies.

The nomination committee proposes re-election of Staffan Torstensson, Erland Pontusson, Fredrik Celsing, Johanne Louise Brændgaard and Anna Ljung as board members, all for the period until the end of the next annual general meeting.

The nomination committee proposes that Staffan Torstensson is re-elected as chairman of the board of directors for the period until the end of the next annual general meeting.

Information about the proposed members can be found on the Company's website, www.addvisigroup.se.

The nomination committee proposes re-election of the accounting firm Öhrlings PricewaterhouseCoopers AB (PwC) as the Company's auditor for the period until the end of the next annual general meeting. Öhrlings PricewaterhouseCoopers AB (PwC) has announced that if the meeting resolves in accordance with the proposal, Johan Engstam will be appointed as auditor in charge.

Resolution on approval of the board of directors' remuneration report 2022 (item 12)

The board of directors proposes that the annual general meeting resolves to approve the board of directors' report on remuneration to senior executives prepared in accordance with Chapter 8, Section 53a of the Swedish Companies Act.

Resolution to authorize the board of directors to issue shares/warrants/convertible debentures (item 13)

The board of directors proposes that the annual general meeting authorizes the board of directors, within the limits of the current articles of association, until the next annual general meeting, on one or more occasions, with or without deviation from the shareholders' preferential rights, to resolve on the issue of shares, warrants and/or convertible debentures. The board of directors proposes that it is authorized to resolve on such issues in cash, in kind and/or by set-off, or otherwise subject to conditions. The reason to authorize the board of directors to have the possibility to resolve on new issues without preferential rights for the shareholders as described above is primarily for the purpose of being able to raise new capital, to increase the Company's flexibility and strengthen the Company's own funds or to be able to carry out acquisitions.

The issue of new shares pursuant to the authorization shall be carried out on customary terms under current market conditions. If the board of directors deems it appropriate to enable delivery of shares in connection with an issue as described above, this can be done at a subscription price corresponding to the quota value of the shares.

The board of directors or the person appointed by the board of directors shall have the right to make the minor adjustments to the resolution that may be necessary in connection with registration of the resolution with the Swedish Companies Registration Office.

The resolution according to this item 13 requires approval from shareholders representing at least two-thirds of both the number of votes cast as well as the shares represented at the general meeting in order to be valid.
